UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

STIPULATION AND ORDER

- against -

Cr. No. 11-639(S-4)(JFB)

MARTIN LOVLY,

Defendant.

- - - - -X

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between the undersigned attorneys and ORDERED by the Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(d), that:

1. Any and all discovery material produced to the defendant MARTIN LOVLY (the "defendant"), pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3500 by the government in the above-captioned case, and any and all copies, notes, transcripts, documents or other information derived or prepared from any other discovery material, may be used by the defendant and defense counsel only for purposes of trial preparation and for defending at trial against the charges in the above-captioned case;

2. Any and all discovery material produced to the defendant by the government and any copies, notes, transcripts, documents or other information derived or prepared from the discovery material shall not be further disseminated by the defendant or defense counsel to any individuals, organizations or other entities, other than members of the legal staff of defense counsel who has signed this Stipulation and Order, without further order of the Court;

3. None of the discovery material produced to the defendant by the government and any copies, notes, transcripts, documents or other information derived or prepared from the discovery material may be left with the defendant or at any of the detention facilities in which he may be housed.

4. Each of the individuals to whom disclosure is authorized in paragraph 2, that is, members of the legal staff of defense counsel who has signed this Stipulation and Order, shall be provided a copy of this Stipulation and Order and will be advised that he or she shall not further disseminate any portion of the discovery material or any copies, notes, transcripts, documents or other information derived or prepared from the discovery material except in conformity with this Stipulation and Order;

5. Where the defendant and/or defense counsel wishes to disclose any portion of the discovery material or any copies, notes, transcripts, documents or other information derived or prepared from the discovery material to any individual to whom disclosure is not authorized by paragraph 2, defense counsel must provide advance notice to the government and make application to the Court for authorization to make such disclosure, and such notice must be given sufficiently in advance of the contemplated application so as to permit briefing and argument on the propriety of such disclosure;

5. Nothing in this Stipulation and Order shall preclude the government from seeking a further protective order pursuant to Rule 16(d) as to particular items of discovery material;

6. If the defendant obtains substitute counsel, the undersigned defense counsel will not transfer any portion of the discovery material or any copies, notes, transcripts, documents or other information derived or prepared from the discovery material unless and until substitute counsel enters into this Stipulation and Order;

7. The defendant and defense counsel will return to the government the discovery material and all copies thereof, whether in the possession of the defendant, defense counsel or members of the legal staff of defense counsel who has signed this Stipulation and Order, when the defendant enters a guilty plea, or at the conclusion of the trial of the defendant in this matter, whichever occurs first; and

8. Any violation of this Stipulation and Order
(a) will require the immediate return to the United States of the discovery material and all copies thereof, and (b) may result in contempt of Court.
